Debre Markos University Institute of Technology

Academic Program of Software Engineering

Outline for Internship Final Report

Your internship report needs to include the following main issues.

1. A cover page describing the following items:
    - Your name
    - The names of your University, Institute and AC/program
    - The name of your internship hosting company
    - The duration of your internship
    - To whom it will submit
    - The date of the submission of your report
2. 3-5 Inner preliminary pages describing the following items:
    - Declaration of the student and the approval of the mentor and the supervisor - one page
    - Acknowledgements (If any) – only one page
    - An executive summary – only one page
    - List of tables and figures (if any)
    - Table of content
    - Objective
3. 7-10 Pages describing the background of your internship hosting company, including:
    - Its brief history
    - Its main products or services
    - Its main customers or the end users of its products or services
    - Its overall organization and work flow
    - Its overall site layout
4. 15-20 Pages describing your overall internship experience, including:
    - How you get into the company
    - In which section of the company you have been working in
    - How does the work flow in the section look like?
    - Which work piece or work tasks you have been executing
    - What procedures you have been using while performing your work tasks
    - How good you have been in performing your work tasks
    - What measures you have taken in order to overcome these challenges, etc

5. 15-20 Pages describing the overall benefits you gained from the internship, including:
    - What you gained in terms of improving your practical skills
    - What you gained in terms of upgrading your theoretical knowledge
    - What you gained in terms of improving your interpersonal communication skills
    - What you gained in terms of improving your team playing skills
    - What you gained in terms of improving your leadership skills
    - What you gained in terms of understanding about work ethics related issues
    - What you gained in terms of entrepreneurship skills
    - What challenges you have been facing while performing your work tasks
6. 3-5 pages' Practical application of your knowledge to your host company
7. 5-10 pages Solved problems by yourselves in your stay @your host company
8. 3-5 Pages describing your conclusion and your recommendations for the company.
9. References
10. Appendices